Gov. Allen of Kansas says that even in event of a railroad strike that the railroads of that state will be operated. The Kansas industrial court act makes a strike on the railroad an offense against the state. The Kansas court no doubt has its imperfections, but it seemingly has enough teeth in it to make it an effective weapon. If it protects the interests of the people and makes injustice on the part of employers or employees less likely, then certainly there is much to be said in its support.

As people generally hear about the proposed railroad strike and the questions it involves, they are impressed particularly with the threat to ignore the law. The statutes provided the railway labor board for the specific purpose of affording to the railway workers a means of having their claims considered without resort to the strike. Now they are in the position of ignoring the orders of the board. Some of the railroads have taken the same attitude toward the board.

Certainly it is time to find out just what are the functions of the board, created by the Esch-Cummings law for the very purpose of smoothing out a situation of the kind that is now presented. If the board has no authority and cannot function, the law had just as well be repealed.

If you have not been able to persuade yourself that the cost of living has been reduced, just take a $10 bill, visit the business district of Jacksonville and find out what you can buy of the real necessities for that amount. If you will then compare the total of goods purchased with those obtainable for the same amount of money a year ago, you will have abundant proof of the drop in the cost of many necessities.

The poets used to write about "What is so fair as a day in June?"

until that month thru sentiment or other reasons has won renown as being the most beautiful of the year. But certainly the people of Jacksonville and all the surrounding area these days can bear testimony to the fact that October is a real rival for June. Just now October has the best of the argument, for neither June nor any other month in the year can offer weather attractions to exceed those of the present.

These days are perfect from weather and beauty standpoints, and when you have perfection what more can be said? We are considering the question merely from the esthetic standpoint, for no doubt the merchant who deals in winter time togs would rather see the weather more inclement.

You will agree that requests can now be made with entire safety for the benefit of Diamond Grove and Jacksonville cemeteries. Mayor Crabtree has named the men who will be responsible for the management of the trust fund—W. A. Jenkinson, H. M. Capps and Dennis Schram.

At Chatham on Sunday automobile accidents were so numerous on the hard road that the mayor of the town has issued a special notice warning auto drivers as to what will be done to them if they do not immediately begin to observe the law.

A new stretch of hard road has just been opened near Decatur and speeding there has reached such a danger point that the authorities are seriously considering closing the road for a time. These cases merely give point to the thought that auto drivers in some localities seem to be growing more careless instead of improving in that respect. They are furnishing argument for the people who believe that the day must come when the law will control the manufacture of automobiles and permit the sale of high powered machines only for specific purposes instead of for general use.

REPORT OF MORGAN COUNTY RED CROSS FOR PAST YEAR

The Morgan County Red Cross received its authorization to form a Chapter of the National Red Cross, on April 16th, 1917. Its duty, then, was to help furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of the U. S. army, navy and marines. It also served as a medium of communication between the people of Morgan county and their men who were in the service of the United States during the World War. The history of our Chapter during the war shows a remarkable record of achievement of Morgan county men and women. A record made possible by great sacrifice and service and the same spirit that accomplished it has launched the Chapter on its far reaching program. This history is on file at the office.

Home Service.
Since the signing of the Armistice, the home service section of the Red Cross has informed the Morgan county ex-service man of his rights under the government in regard to receiving money or compensation, free medical treatment and training in a new trade or profession. It helps him to make out the papers necessary to prove his claim, furnishing legal advice, stenographic service, etc. Such assistance is necessary because it is not reasonable to expect a man until he has shown that he has a just claim, nor is it reasonable to expect a sick man to be able to make out the necessary complicated papers in order to present his claim.

Such an agency as the Red Cross can more easily than the government establish personal sympathetic relations with the disabled man. The Red Cross stands as a friend to the disabled man and his family to do all that the American people can do to lessen the suffering brought upon him and his family by the war.

Since October 1, 1920, the home service section has given service to 862 ex-service men and their families—455 of these cases are closed, 219 pending and 88 are Jacksonville State hospital cases. The above total includes 16 soldiers' family cases in the city of Jacksonville and 20 soldier family cases in the county. The following work has been done during the current year ending September 30th:

Interviews at office .....1362
Visits made .....627
Letters written .....1993
Compensation claims filed .....74
Additional evidence procured or information given on pending compensation claims .....310
Vocational training claims .....24
Victory button claims .....67
Victory medal .....193
Bonuses claims .....10
Government allotment and allowance claims .....7

Liberty bond claim .....1
Claims for burial expenses of deceased soldiers .....5
Claims for personal effects of deceased soldiers .....6
Claim for arrears of pay of deceased soldiers .....2
Claim for headstones furnished by government .....3
Claim for total permanent disability on government insurance .....1
Since February 21st, 1921, the Red Cross has been furnishing tobacco to ex-service men at the Jacksonville State Hospital.

The community survey undertaken by Morgan County Red Cross during November and December, 1920, brought out the following needs in Morgan county:

1.—Constructive family service in the county, outside of Jacksonville.
2.—Nursing service in the county schools outside of Jacksonville and Waverly.
On March 14th, 1921, at a Chapter meeting, these facts were presented and it was voted that the Peace-time work of the Red Cross would include these two phases of service. Since April 1st, 1921, the Chapter and branches have maintained a Public Health nurse. The report of the Nursing department for the past six months is as follows:

Schools inspected .....22
Family visits .....233
Children inspected .....1039
Dr. Kates' crippled children clinics .....2
Patients inspected at these clinics .....38
(Necessary braces, medicines, glasses furnished.)
The Family Welfare work in the county since April 1st, 1921, was as follows:

Family cases (Problems involved more than one often found in one family) .....24
Feeble-mindedness and insanity .....6
Insufficient income .....7
Unemployment .....3
Loss of mother .....6
Child welfare .....3
Shiftlessness .....4
Immorality .....2
Desertion .....2

The Chapter has undertaken the care of only such cases as would receive attention from no other agency.

On January 24, 1921, a check for $100 was sent to the Near East Relief thru their local representative. The garment making department reports that since September, 1921:

Garments made and shipped for European Relief .....392
Garments in process of making .....375
Layettees in process of making .....50
Total .....817
$1,000 is kept in reserve by the Chapter for disaster relief. This amount will be added to by National Headquarters in case of emergency.

HIGH SCHOOL TO PRESENT COFFER-MILLER PLAYERS

Famous Players Will be Brought Here by Local High—Will Fill Date This Season.

A representative of the Coffier-Miller players was in the city yesterday and interested High school officials in engaging the players to put on a group of plays at the High school during the year. If satisfactory arrangements can be made it is probable that a definite date will be decided upon for the event.

The Coffier-Miller players are professional people who make a specialty of playing before educational institutions over the country. They have played in nearly all the large High school of the state and in several of the large normal schools last year they presented "As You Like It" and "The Rivals," an old English comedy. Their presentation this year includes, "The Imaginary Invalid" and "The Rivals."

The High school desires to sponsor the good type of amusement for students. If such amusement can be provided on a self-supporting basis it will be possible to bring first-class entertainments here. The purpose of High school officials in bringing players such as Coffier-Miller people here, is to help in raising the standard of amusements for high school students. If a student can see more of the type of really good comedy and drama, which is amusing without being in the least degree suggestive, the popular taste will turn toward the more worth while productions. It is to this end that Principal Shafer and other High school officials are arranging to bring the Coffier-Miller Players and others like them, to Jacksonville.

A VISITOR FROM NORTH DAKOTA
Charles E. Crum of North Dakota is visiting his nephew, J. W. Marshall of the passenger station of the Wabash. The gentleman says they have had some hard times in his state, owing to continued bad seasons and low prices. One great evil with farmers in that region, he says, is the fact that they stick to wheat, exhaust their land and then have little to eat or sell.

Mr. Crum says he follows diversified farming and thus gets along far better. He raises hogs and cattle and their feed and does some dairying and thus manages to get along fairly well.

The gentleman formerly lived in this vicinity and his old friends remember him with pleasure.

CARING FOR MAUVAISTERRE LAKE
As already stated in the Journal, the local branch of the State Sporting association will take care of the wild life on and about Mauvaisterre lake and much is expected from it. Already F. L. Sharpe has been to Springfield to make arrangements with the state fish commissioner to supply a quantity of fish and without waiting for the regular government car, a number of trucks will load up milk cans, go to the river and bring back members of the finny tribe.

It is also the intention of the association to shoot the loons which destroy large quantities of fish and also to destroy or scare away a certain specie of wild duck.

Then there has been too much illegal shooting in this vicinity. Much of this has been on early Sunday mornings, and must be stopped. So large a body of water may be made very valuable to the fishermen and sportsmen if properly cared for and that is the intention of the gentlemen who have volunteered to care for it.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without giving pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable and sound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week to note the effect. 15c and 30c.

INDEES WIN RUBBER GAME FROM BROWNS

Take Colored Team Into Camp in the Deciding Game of the Series by Score of 5 to 2—Game was Hard Fought for Seven Innings

Frank Smith's Indies defeated the Jacksonville Browns in the deciding game of the city series at South Side park Sunday afternoon by a score of 5 to 2.

The weather was ideal for baseball and both teams put up a hard fight as it meant the series for the Indies or another chance for the Browns if they won the game.

Both Duncan and Hamm pitched good ball, tightening up in the pinches and holding the batters safe. It was largely through misplays that most of the runs were scored.

Hamm allowed six hits and struck out 12 men. However, he walked five and two of the passes were turned into runs, the only scores made by the Browns.

Duncan allowed eight hits and struck out four men and walked three, but none of them resulted in runs.

The Browns broke the ice in the first inning when Brown was walked, sacrificed to second by Shannon and scored on Waffel's safety to right field. Their second and also last run came in the fourth on a base on balls to Black, Duncan's single and Weir's double.

In their half of the same inning, the Indies took the lead. Cox was first up and singled. He was out. Waffel to Brown, on Christopher's bouncer. Christopher beat the relay to first. De Frates hit a high fly to short right center. Young made a desperate attempt to get the ball, but failed. Christopher coming home. DeFrates took second on the throw in. Brown messed Devlin's roller and he was safe at first. De Frates taking third. De Frates stole home and Devlin stole third. Devlin scored on a wild pitch.

That was all until the eighth when Hamm was safe on Brown's boot, took third on Cox's single and scored on a fielder's choice. Cox went to second on the throw to third and scored while Brown was throwing out DeFrates at first. The score:

Grace Sunday School

The inspiring music as played by the orchestra before the opening of the school was appreciated by the early attendants. Miss Rinehart of the Woman's college played a violin solo in a very pleasing manner. Miss Blackstock a returned missionary from India was introduced and brought greetings from the Sunday schools of India. A. T. Capps told the story of an incident in David Livingstone's life that emphasized the value of keeping ones word. The student class taught by Mrs. Lambert is a real growing organization, there were seventy in attendance. The attendance was three hundred and sixty and the offering amounted to $16.88. There is a splendid spirit in the school and great interest is being manifested in the various departments. Next Sunday a special temperance program will be carried out.

The subject of the morning sermon as preached by the pastor was "The sufficiency of God's Grace." Junior league met at 2:30 with Miss Agnes Davis as leader, at 6:30, the Epworth league was led by Miss Dorothy May Smith, a large company of young people were in attendance.

The topic of the evening service was "The Conquests of Mohammed." It was a powerful presentation of the history of this religion and the story of its various beliefs. The music at both services was of an unusually high character.

Monday evening the regular monthly meeting of the Sunday school workers. Rev. Marchack will make an address. Luncheon will be served at six o'clock.

Tuesday evening the Joint Methodist school of Religion will have their first class sessions. It is not too late to join, all are welcome. Sessions are held at the Woman's college at 7:30 each Tuesday evening.

county last night when citizens of Morgan county interested in the Red Cross gathered to hear about the fifth annual Roll Call.

After the invocation by Rev. A. E. Powell, of Woodson, about eighty people enjoyed a delicious supper served by the ladies of the Congregational church. The Red Cross thought was carried out with a huge flag draped on the platform and with poster displays to be used in the coming drive.

H. J. Rodgers, president of the Red Cross Board of Directors, made a few remarks setting forth the purpose of the gathering, and then introduced Mr. Bergner, field representative of the American Red Cross in this state. Mr. Bergner made a short pointed talk upon the Red Cross work in general, outlining the various branches and their relation to the community. First the Home Service work was discussed, and then the health program, which is closely related to the proper home life, and then to education.

The guiding principle throughout all of the work is that of higher and better spiritual welfare. Mr. Bergner told of the many instances when it seemed as if there is a worthy cause that demands immediate attention and funds. He said if the Red Cross devoted its time and money to every thing that comes up in this respect, the funds would soon be exhausted. It must stick to its definite program in order to successfully carry out the great humanitarian program that it has planned.

At this point Miss MacKay, Red Cross Director of Nursing in Illinois, made a brief statement illustrating this point, and gave as an example the necessity of conserving the funds, the great Pueblo flood disaster. The day after the flood water swept over the stricken area, the National headquarters wired $50,000 for relief work before any assistance had been asked.

Miss Reiche, the Red Cross public health nurse for this county, was the next speaker. She outlined the big job of examining the rural schools and just how these examinations are beneficial. Each nursing there is a meeting of the nursing committee in some one of the rural communities at which time cases are discussed. These discussions result in patients being brought to the clinics held in this city by the Morgan County Clinical Association, and to use Miss Reiche's words, "The clinics are a Godsend." She gave several cases where the clinics have given treatment just in time to save sight, and many other times have aided in relieving suffering. Miss Reiche has a big job. There are 106 schools in the county and over 2,000 school children. And she is doing that job well.

WOMEN GIVE OUT

Housework is hard enough when healthy. Every Jacksonville woman who is having backache, blue and nervous spells, dizzy troubles, should be glad to heed this Jacksonville woman's experience.

Mrs. R. E. McFarland, 633 N. Main St., says: "I had a dull pain through my back that made me feel pretty miserable all over. If I would stoop over I would have a sharp catch take me in the small of my back that would make it rather hard for me to get straightened up again. I also found that my kidneys acted too freely at times and I knew they were disordering. I had dizzy spells when everything would be in a blur and I would have to sit down to let the spell pass. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got some at Coover's Drug Store and it was not long before they rid me of the trouble. My cure has been a lasting one. I am glad to recommend a remedy that has proved as good as Doan's. I am sure Doan's would help others troubled as I was, if given a trial."

Mr. Rodgers said that it is only "giving the kids" a square deal to assist Miss Reiche in her work. The final conclusion is just this: everyone has to pay the bill eventually in the treatment of these cases, so why not go at it in an organized manner that will give satisfactory results.

Tells of Waverly. Miss Meedy, the Waverly community nurse, then addressed the meeting and explained how the citizens of that city happened to get a community nurse. It was due to a scarlet fever epidemic that was raging in the schools. The citizens talked the matter over and decided that it would be more economical and more beneficial to hire a nurse to fight the disease in the school than to shut the school. The plan was successful and the Waverly citizens are congratulating themselves upon the move they made. Miss Meedy's work includes school inspection and classes in home hygiene.

Dr. C. E. Black was next on the program. He spoke of the Morgan County Medical Clinic and how the Red Cross can help make it a success. The primary object of the clinic is education, and next care of the sick.

The chairman then called on Earl Spink, chairman of the Roll Call committee. Mr. Spink, who went as a local delegate to the National convention of the Red Cross in Columbus, Ohio, recently, told why it was necessary to have the roll call here in the city. Besides the city organization there are ten county chapters, which will conduct separate campaigns. In the city there are still some funds on hand from the war drive that will make it possible to ask for only the dollar memberships this year. This means that for every subscription to the United Budget Campaign one dollar will be given to the Red Cross. Mr. Spink stated that if for no other reason than that of care of the disabled soldiers, the drive should be a success. This is a debt which the people owe and must not forget to pay.

Mr. Rodgers here explained how fifty cents of every dollar is sent to the National headquarters, and that the other fifty cents in the dollar received from the county chapters is returned. This year forty cents will be returned and ten cents kept in the city chapter for overhead expenses, as the city chapter pays all the overhead expenses of the entire county.

Miss Arthur Explains. Miss Clara C. Arthur, Roll Call Director of the Morgan County Drive, was the next speaker. She gave a brief outline of the membership which range from $1, $5, $10, $50 and $100. The Roll Call in the city will be put on from November 13 to 20 inclusive and in the county from November 11 to 24 inclusive. Miss Arthur is in charge of publicity and is arranging for the poster displays and the distribution of reading matter. The campaign will be carried on in the regular voting and school precincts so that everybody will be sure of where they belong.

The United Budget was next discussed by H. M. Capps. He gave a very comprehensive talk on the organization of the United Budget, which includes the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Near East Relief, Social Service League and Anti-Tuberculosis Society. While the various speeches were being made slips of paper were passed to the audience for the purpose of asking questions. These were collected at the conclusion of Mr. Capps' speech. The questions were all promptly and satisfactorily answered and showed that the people present had been doing some good thinking on the many subjects during the program.

Figures on Finances. Some of the questions concerned the finances of the local chapter, so Mr. Kelly was called upon to read the financial statement for the year. This statement showed that a total of $6,796.21 had been spent last year, and as Mr. Kelly put it, "Not one cent for graft. There is not even any 'miscellaneous' entry, in order to make everything balance."

One question asked of the Red Cross ever duplicated any of the

The Goldwyn feature picture, "Dangerous Curve Ahead," was shown at the Grand yesterday afternoon and last night. Rupert Hughes presented this great picture featuring Helene Chadwick and Richard Dix. This is a comedy drama dealing with married life and the theme is worked out in a most delightfully interesting vein.

The story is punctuated with comedy but there is enough of the dramatic to afford many a thrill. The singing of Mrs. Beulah Coddington adds both to the artistry and the heart interest of the story. Those who have heard Mrs. Coddington know the beauty and appeal of her voice, and the big audiences yesterday found her songs truly delightful.

The Grand orchestra has a full quota of special music. "Dangerous Curve Ahead" will show today and tomorrow in afternoon and evening programs.

BACK FROM TRIP THRU THE SOUTH

Four Jacksonville Citizens Attended Convention of Mississippi Valley Highway Association at Meridian, Miss.

"W. J. Brady, H. J. Rodgers, S. O. Barr and Joshua Vasconcellos have returned from an automobile trip to the south. They were away just a little more than two weeks and traveled about 2300 miles. The Jacksonville men drove first to St. Louis, where they joined with others on the sociability run to Meridian, Miss., held under the auspices of the Mississippi Valley Highway association.

Enroute they enjoyed barbecues and other events arranged in honor of the travelers and found the sessions of the convention proper very interesting.

Mr. Rodgers, Mr. Brady and Mr. Vasconcellos went by rail to New Orleans for a brief visit and Mr. Barr spent two days with his brother, Ki Barr, at Mobile. Then they started on return trip and took a route which carried them thru Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky and up into Illinois. The journey to Meridian covered 900 miles and the route they followed coming home covered 1400 miles.

In Alabama they visited the much talked of Muscle Shoals plant and found everybody there about hoping that Henry Ford will secure control and put the plant into operation.

Several days later they visited the battlefield of Shiloh and in Kentucky one of the most interesting stops was at Mammoth Cave. They took a cave journey covering between four and five hours. A number of new caves in that same portion of Kentucky have recently been discovered.

While there were some minor mishaps on the trip, the tourists had no tire trouble and not a tire was changed during the long journey. The trip was made in Mr. Brady's car and he drove the entire distance.

MILK ORDINANCE GOES TO CONFERENCE

Council Refers Proposed Law to Joint Committee and Health Physician—Cemetery Board of Managers Named.

The proposed milk ordinance was the principal theme of discussion at the meeting of the city council Monday night. Nearly 100 people, most of them interested in the production and sale of milk, were present. After a good deal of oratory the ordinance was referred to the public health committee, the city health physician and a committee to be appointed by the milk dealers' association.

The ordinance will be considered by this joint committee and then returned to the council for action.

The roll call by City Clerk J. E. Scott showed Mayor Crabtree, Aldermen Rowe, Cain, Chapin, Ehlers, Loneragan, Flynn and McGinnis present. A resolution was adopted approving the transfer of $750 from the public benefit fund to the special assessment fund, to meet certain bonds.

Another resolution provided for the destruction of ballots of the last election and primary and Water Superintendent Cobb and Chief of Police Kiloran were appointed to attend to this work.

Mayor Crabtree named as members of the board of cemetery managers to have charge of the cemetery, W. A. Jenkinson, H. M. Capps and Dennis Schram. The men were confirmed by unanimous vote.

Mr. Carlyle made a complaint about offensive odors from the Jacksonville Reduction company plant. This matter on motion of Alderman Rowe with a second by Alderman McGinnis, was referred to the public health committee. A petition was read, signed by a large number of milk dealers asking the council not to pass the ordinance in its present form. The language of this petition was as follows:

Petition of Protest.

To the Mayor and the City Council—

"We, the milk and cream producers and distributors in and around the city of Jacksonville, do respectfully request that you do not pass the ordinance now before the city council, which provides for the regulation, sale and inspection of milk and cream."

"We believe the ordinance is far more drastic than necessary. If enacted it will work a hardship upon the producer and the consumer alike. Many of its obnoxious provisions will cause some producers to sell their herds and quit business, others to ship their products out of the city and some to separate their milk and make butter and increasing the cost of milk to the consumer. We believe that if the state laws are properly enforced we can have a good, wholesome milk supply without any extra cost to the city. And we pledge ourselves to assist all officers to enforce the state laws and regulations."

Respectfully submitted

On motion of Alderman Cain with a second by Alderman Flynn it was received and placed on file.

General Discussion.

Then Mayor Crabtree gave opportunity relative to the proposed milk ordinance. H. J. Rucker, assistant county agent, made an extended talk on behalf of the milk men in which he maintained that a number of sections of the ordinance made requirements which will be both irksome and expensive. He said that the men engaged in the milk business are anxious to be in accord with the law and to make conditions at all times healthful. He suggested that by co-operation with the dairymen's organization that a great deal might be accomplished in an educational way.

City Attorney Walter Bellatti stated that the ordinance as proposed had been built in accordance with federal and state regulations and to some extent upon requirements made in other cities. He said that it was not the wish of the council to impose any unjust regulations but that in his view there was nothing required in the ordinance which meant more than a reasonable degree of cleanliness and care.

Dr. A. M. King, city health physician, made some explanation of the requirements of the present law and emphasized the importance of a pure milk supply in relation to questions of public health. Dr. Joseph Milligan said that she believed dairymen generally were anxious to have a pure supply of milk and physicians realized how very essential pure milk and water are, especially in relation to the health of children. These facts are pointed out in federal statistics, and federal statistics also show that the conditions are not satisfactory here, and that the mortality rate is higher than should be the case.

Others who spoke were William Moore, Lloyd James, Clifford James, J. W. Merrigan and W. A. Daub. On motion of Alderman Loneragan with a second by Alderman McGinnis, the matter was referred to the public health committee, the city health physician and a committee to be named by the milk men's association.

Mr. Loneragan in making the motion, said that the question was one in which the people, the council and the milk men's organization are mutually interested and that he believed the joint committee would work out a satisfactory plan.

Mayor Crabtree gave opportunity for further discussion and then the motion was carried and the council adjourned.

Louis Horen is in charge of the prizes which will be awarded to forty masqueraders. A list of the prizes are to be announced soon. Judges are also to be selected.

It has been decided to hold the parade at 7:30 o'clock. Persons going to other Halloween affairs will have plenty of time to attend the festivities around the square.

A meeting of the boulevard light committee will be held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Wednesday morning.

The rest room committee meets tomorrow night. Blue prints of the prospective changes to be made in the court house basement have been prepared and estimates of the work will be considered.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE CONFERENCE ON THE LIMITATION OF ARMAMENTS

(By Hamilton Holt)

(Editorial Note—This is the first of a series of three articles on the approaching conference on the limitation of armaments prepared for the Commission on International Justice and Good will of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America by three outstanding authorities on disarmament. The second will deal with the Churches and the Conference and will be by Dr. Charles S. Macfarland; while the third, by Dr. Sidney L. Gulick, will be an a-b-c statement of the problems of the Far East.)

ARTICLE I.

ALTERNATIVES BEFORE CONFERENCE

To reduce armaments to the lowest point consistent with national security, or To effect some proportional limitation of the naval forces of Great Britain, Japan and the United States.

Intelligent public opinion must assert itself if the largest results are to be obtained.

The significance of the Harding Conference on the Limitation of Armaments depends on whether the Conference will make a real attempt to reach the goal of reducing armaments "to the lowest point consistent with national security" or whether it will content itself merely with trying to effect some proportional limitation of the naval forces of Great Britain, Japan and the United States.

The former can be done if Mr. Harding is prepared either to enter the existing League of Nations, or to set up a new Association of Nations. The latter can be done simply by a point agreement between the three greatest naval powers of Europe, America and Asia. The latter is the alternative more likely to happen. If this be the correct surmise, then President Harding is dead right in warning the public not to entertain too high hopes of results from the forthcoming Conference.

The people are keyed up to a high pitch of anticipation. They are undoubtedly ready to follow the President to the limit in any concrete peace proposal he may make, just as they were ready to follow Mr. Wilson into the League of Nations two years ago. But partisan politics beat Wilson, and partisan politics may now beat Harding.

Still there is real danger confronting the Conference. It is the danger of putting the cart before the horse. To limit armaments without setting up anything to take the place of armaments is not practicable. Armaments are not so much the cause of the world's troubles as they are symptoms. Armaments are the last analysis the guarantors of national security, and it is just as absurd for nations to disarm before the existence of international courts, parliaments and executives as it is for cowboys to disarm until there are sheriffs and justices of peace.

The only two forces that ever have or probably ever can govern mankind, whether as individuals or as nations, are law or war, right or might, reason or power. If we do not have one we must have the other. Nations, therefore, must depend upon armaments as instruments of power until they are ready to provide acceptable substitutes. And the method by which this can be done is, first political organization comes law, from law comes justice and from justice comes peace.

President Harding has indeed made tentative suggestions regarding a possible Association of Nations which will be the first step in the orderly process of establishing law for war. Although he refused to enter the existing League of Nations, he does desire more or less limitation of armaments.

What can we expect then from President Harding? If he can do no more than prevail upon Great Britain and Japan to join with us in some proportional cutting down of navies, even in the smallest degree, he will deserve the thanks of all good men everywhere and will have achieved a real triumph in statesmanship. Such a result, however, will, of course be hardly more than a scratching of the surface of the disarmament problem, but the people are not likely to be satisfied with so slight a result. Millions of men died in the great war, because European statesmanship had gone bankrupt. They taxed themselves to pay three hundred and fifty-five billion dollars because Austria would not heed Serbia's appeal to join the Hague Court settle their dispute.

Now is the time for public opinion to assert itself. What is now needed is a fundamental and constructive plan for the reduction of armaments. The nation-wide interest of the religious forces of the country as illustrated by the educational program by the Federal Council of the Churches, is a striking manifestation of the popular demand for a thorough-going reduction of armaments. This alone will the people heartily support. But if they are actually to secure such a reduction in armaments they must voice that desire unmistakably in every city, town and district in our country.

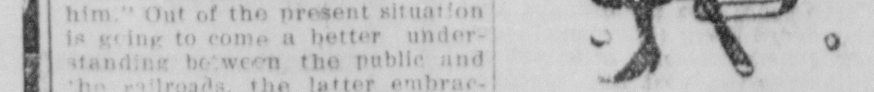

or political methods in keeping in constant touch with the people with the first appearance of the era when railroads became the goat of aspiring politicians in almost every legislature in the country, that in part thwarted at the time the aims of President Roosevelt in enlarging the powers of the interstate commerce commission.

Healthy Mother Merry Children Happy Home
TO maintain a happy home the housewife must keep in good health. Her duties are many and various, and it seems as if every other member of the family depended very much on her. "Where is my hat?" cries the boy. "What did you do with my coat?" asks the daughter. "I can't find any handkerchiefs," yells the husband. The housewife is usually the advisor and general manager of the family.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps women to maintain a happy home by keeping them in good health.
Bloomington, Ill.—"I have taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has done me a wonderful sight of good. I was never very strong and female trouble kept me weak so that I had no interest for my housework. I had such a backache I could not cook a meal or clean up a room without raging with pain. I would rub my back with alcohol and it would ease for a few hours, but after I had taken three bottles of Vegetable Compound my aches began to gradually leave me. Now I am as strong and healthy as any woman and I give my thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for my health."—Mrs. J. C. McQuitty, 610 W. Walnut St., Bloomington, Ill.
Dante, So. Dakota.—"I would have pains and cramps every month until I could hardly stand it and could not do my work at all at that time and often had to go to bed. I went to a physician, but he did not do me much good and said I would have to have an operation. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspaper and thought I would give it a trial. Now I feel lots better and don't have to give up and go to bed, these facts as a testimonial, and I will answer with pleasure all letters I receive, and you may be sure I will praise your wonderful medicine."—Mrs. ARTHUR J. ### JOSEPH A. DODDS GIVEN FAREWELL

Postoffice Employees Honor Departing Fellow Worker—Is Presented With Silk Umbrella

Postoffice employees had a farewell in honor of Joseph A. Dodds who leaves the local mailing division to resume his old work in the railway mail service.

The entire force of the office was present and the affair provided the fine fraternal spirit that exists among the employees of the local office.

Postmaster Ralph I. Dunlap made a fine address on the service and told the employees that the spirit of co-operation was largely responsible for the efficiency of the local office. Mr. Dunlap also in behalf of the employees presented Mr. Dodds with a silk umbrella. Evidently Mr. Dodds' fellow workers believed that he would have rainy days as well as days of sunshine and they were preparing him for the rainy day.

Assistant Postmaster Thomas Harber also made a splendid address as did James Wagner superintendent of mails. Mr. Dunlap who acted as master of ceremonies also called on men from the clerks, city carriers, rural carriers and substitutes.

ORGAN RECITAL BY HENRY WARD PEARSON

Was Given at Illinois College Monday Evening.

A capacity house greeted Mr. Pearson at his annual organ recital last evening. The program had aroused the interest of all music lovers in Jacksonville and their expectations were realized to the utmost.

Salome's "Grand Chorus in F" which opened the concert was given a masterly rendition in three pieces by Nearing, entitled "Scenes from a Mexican desert." Pearson showed to the full his powers of interpretation making the audience feel the atmosphere of the desert in a most realistic manner.

The Nocturne by Ferrata a graceful melodious composition gave the performer opportunities for using a most colorful combination of stops.

Mr. Pearson was equally at home in the pure classical style of Handel, the aria and allegro being being played with fine shading.

Perhaps the most interesting number last evening was the Evening Bells by Macfarlane, the playing of which introduced the new chimes. Some splendid effects were produced and the college is to be congratulated on having acquired this beautiful addition to its organ.

Nevins "Sketches of the City," gave the artist another opportunity to use his imaginative powers. These charming pieces were immensely enjoyed as was the Marche Picturesque by Kroeger, which concluded the program.

An encore was added during which the audience was again enabled to hear the chimes. This was called "In the Moonlight" by Klinder; a celebrated organist from Philadelphia.

MRS. KNOX ENDS LIFE BY DROWNING

Patient at Maplecreek Sanatorium Drowns Self in Big Sandy Creek—Left Note in Pocket of Jacket.

"Loved you to the last but with no mind." This pathetic little note spelled the life tragedy of Mrs. Scottie Knox, a patient at Maplecreek sanatorium who drowned herself in Big Sandy creek some time Saturday or Sunday. It was found in the pocket of a jacket left on the bank of the creek near where the body was found. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide and declared no blame attached to the sanatorium.

The body was found about 3 o'clock Monday afternoon by Herman Burmeister who operates a farm through which the creek runs. Mr. Burmeister and his son were engaged in husking corn when the horses shied at something.

Upon investigation they found a jacket, hat and two handkerchiefs on the bank of the creek. They then discovered the body in the creek.

Mr. Burmeister immediately called up Jacksonville State hospital on the phone and asked them if any patient had escaped. He was told that none had and he then notified Sheriff Weatherford and Coroner Rose who went to the scene. Dr. McLin and a nurse from the state hospital responded to the call and Dr. McLin with the assistance of others, removed the body from the water. Later it developed that Mrs. Knox had been a patient at Maplecreek.

The body was taken to the Reynolds Mortuary and prepared for burial and will be shipped to Monticello, Ark., today for funeral services and interment.

Coroner Rose empaneled a jury and held an inquest Monday evening at the Reynolds mortuary. The jury was composed of Charles Cully, foreman; C. A. Boruff, clerk; William McNamara, D. G. Claus, R. Lee Rexroat and C. E. Segner.

The testimony of Dr. A. H. Doller of the Norbury sanatorium and Mr. Burmeister was heard. Dr. Doller told the jury that Mrs. Knox, who had been at the sanatorium since July, 1920, suffered from melancholia which was frequently characterized by intense depression. He said that Mrs. Knox had made frequent attempts at self-destruction and a close watch had been kept over her, an attendant always being with her for a long period.

Had Shown Improvement.
In the past few months the witness said she had shown marked improvement and had been allowed to go out on the lawn unattended. Her improvement had been such that plans had been made to permit her to return to her home.

Mrs. Knox was apparently in her usual state of mind Dr. Doller said when she was permitted to go on the lawn after dinner Saturday. When she did not return at 4 o'clock a search was begun which was very extensive. It was participated in by the staff of the institution and the nurses and V. R. Riley, business manager and the police also helped in the search through Saturday night and Sunday morning. Authorities in other cities were also notified. Mrs. Knox was 46 years of age Dr. Doller said.

Mr. Burmeister's testimony merely told of the finding of the body and the steps he took in notifying the authorities.

After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict of suicide and held that no blame should be attached to the Norbury sanatorium for her act.

The husband of Mrs. Knox is in the city and will accompany the body to Monticello, Ark.

URANIA LODGE HAD FINE MEETING
Urania Lodge No. 243, I. O. O. F., had a rally meeting last night which was unusually well attended. The members enjoyed an excellent program of addresses from members of the lodge. The program included talks from Rev. W. E. Spoons, T. M. Tomlinson, J. W. Bowen, W. C. Howe, Roy E. Richardson and Alonzo McNeely of Nortonville. Mr. Spoons talk was a fine address, taking the letters of the word rally, as symbols of the things that rally really stands for.

After the program a fine supper was served. The committee in charge of the arrangements included: W. E. Thomson, chairman; Charles Goodey and J. E. Johnson.

The following persons availed themselves Sunday to "see Jacksonville from the clouds" with Gay Hutson of the Hutson Auto & Aero company. E. K. Elder, Springfield; William Volke, William Lucas and John Prewitt, Jacksonville and Miss Bonita Ruch of St. Louis.

When about two thousand feet up Miss Busch asked why the atmosphere appeared so "smoky" and made it so difficult to see the city below. Hutson shut off his engine and glided the plane to a clear and explained the phenomenon as due to the haze of Indian summer, always more apparent at a height.

Everett Pennell, well known stock dealer was up to the city from Murrayville yesterday.

JOHN KIRK IS AN OLD SETTLER
Rev. John Kirk expected to start this morning for the conference of the M. E. church at Champaign, helping to represent Bethel A. M. E. church of this city.

Mr. Kirk is rounding out a career of fifty years service in different capacities in the city. When a small boy he was not good enough to wear wings and be transported though he was not evil-minded or vicious but the writer can testify that in Sunday school Johnny needed reprimands for mischievous activity and those days are often recalled by both him and his teacher.

When John began his career of earning his livelihood he entered the employ of Dr. Joshua Rhoades, the superintendent of the State School for the Blind, where he worked four years and eight months. Mrs. Rhoades and her daughters taught him to read and the lessons were supplemented at Sunday school so that in time John became a good reader of the Holy Book.

When Dr. Rhoades died John entered the employ of Drs. H. K. and C. George Jones, where he remained twenty-six years and four months. He was much esteemed by them and they gave him a home when he married.

When Dr. Jones died John began delivering goods for Zell, the East State street grocer, with whom he has been associated twenty years. He still drives Mr. Zell's horse and will probably do so as long as able as he is well acquainted with the work.

In 1875, when Rev. P. C. Cooper was pastor of Bethel, John united with the church and has been a constant member ever since. He was ordained a local deacon thirty-two years ago by Bishop Ward, this giving him the title of reverend and enabling him to perform marriage ceremonies.

John has been superintendent of Bethel Sunday school for a number of years and has occupied the pulpit in that church and several others in various localities. His life has been one of marked activity. He has an estimable wife, and a daughter and two grandsons, who are worthy, industrious young men and doing their ancestors credit. Mrs. Kirk is a musician of good ability and has done much to further the cause with her voice and skill with the piano and organ.
